FOR RENT,

You Have Been False to Me.

Take back, take back thy profiered vows,
I ask them not of thee:
How can I now believe the lips
That have been false to me?
Once in the bast, the bright-eyed past,
Ere sin began its spelt.
Thy lips spake words which on my soul Like rays of sunshine felt:
They filed my trembling heart with hopes Bright as you orbs above,
And lit my happy breast with all
The radiance of LOVE.

The radiance of LOVE.

The vows were as the lole wind,
Unstable, fickle, vain;
Or, like the letters traced in sand Beside the sleepless main.
Then ask me not, oh, ask me not To take thee back again:
But leave me ere my heart awakes
To all its former pain.
Forgive me if my slighted faith Dares not to trust thee now—Inc'er can rest my hope again Upon a broken vow.

VERY DESIRABLE RESIDENCE, located as above. It is so well and favorably known that a minute description is deemed unnecessary, but for the benefit of those who may not have seen the property, it may not be amiss to remark that the lot has a front of seventy feet and a depth of about one nundred and sixty feet to a wide alley. The dwelling is built in the best manner, with all the usual modern conveniences, and is justly regarded as a No. 1 residence in every respect. In the basement there is a comfortable office and two or bree other rooms, and a superior furnace, which heats the whole premises. On the first floor there are two pariors, large dining-room, pantry, storeroom, and library; on the second floor four chambers, and in the attic there are two rooms. The whole premises are well lighted and ventilated. The servants apartments are spaciously and conveniently arranged.
Taking into consideration the location of the property, being in front of the Governor's mausion and public square, within five minutes' walk of churches of all denominations and of the usual places of business, it is seidom that so desirable a residence is offered for sale.

On the payment of one-third of the purchase money in cash, or at some convenient date, the reresidence is officred for sale.

On the payment of one-third of the purchase money in cash, or at some convenient date, the remainder could remain on interest for five to ten vears. The dwelling can be seen from 12 to 2 o'clock du-
